

Indirect Objects

Name: _____ Date: _____

Write the direct and indirect objects from each sentence.

(1) The basketball coach read the players the rules of the game.

Direct object: rules

Indirect object: players

(2) The doctor sent Mr. Carter a bill for her services.

Direct object: _____

Indirect object: _____

(3) Could you lend me your ear?

Direct object: _____

Indirect object: _____

(4) Mr. Anderson awarded the spelling bee winner a trophy.

Direct object: _____

Indirect object: _____

(5) Logan cannot loan me his book today.

Direct object: _____

Indirect object: _____

Underline the direct object. Double-underline the indirect object.

(6) The librarian read the children an amazing story.

(7) This book gave Jacob and Allison that information.

(8) Richard picked his wife a bouquet of roses.

(9) The taxi driver promised us a wild ride.

(10) Mr. Miller taught us the importance of hard work.

(11) Mark passed his teammate the ball.

(12) Sabrina read her nephews an exciting story.

(13) Banks lend people money for buying new cars.

(14) Which bank loaned Kayla the money?

(15) Grandmother handed Christopher a list of things to buy from the market.

(16) Did Joseph write his sister a letter?

Indirect Objects

ANSWER KEY

Write the direct and indirect objects from each sentence.

(1) The basketball coach read the players the rules of the game.

Direct object: rules

Indirect object: players

(2) The doctor sent Mr. Carter a bill for her services.

Direct object: bill

Indirect object: Mr. Carter

(3) Could you lend me your ear?

Direct object: ear

Indirect object: me

(4) Mr. Anderson awarded the spelling bee winner a trophy.

Direct object: trophy

Indirect object: winner

(5) Logan cannot loan me his book today.

Direct object: book

Indirect object: me

Underline the direct object. Double-underline the indirect object.

(6) The librarian read the children an amazing story.

(7) This book gave Jacob and Allison that information.

(8) Richard picked his wife a bouquet of roses.

(9) The taxi driver promised us a wild ride.

(10) Mr. Miller taught us the importance of hard work.

(11) Mark passed his teammate the ball.

(12) Sabrina read her nephews an exciting story.

(13) Banks lend people money for buying new cars.

(14) Which bank loaned Kayla the money?

(15) Grandmother handed Christopher a list of things to buy from the market.

(16) Did Joseph write his sister a letter?